

PROTECTION WHERE YOU KNEED IT.

For us, Standard just means right for the duty at hand. You still don't skimp on the details. After all, this isn't about learning to crawl, it's about crawling in bed at night and not rolling out in the morning feeling like you've already put in your honest 10. Yes, there's still the thick padding and durability you expect, plus all the flexibility and first-rate fit workers demand. Hey, joint jarring jobs—we got your number.

Never genuflect at the Altar of Ouch when you can be crouching on a cloud of comfort. Especially when these petroleum-proof, silicone-free, wildly popular patella-pleasers are just waiting to put a loving, cushy layer of lasting protection between you and even the hottest or harshest Martian landscape. We're talkin' Flash Gordon technology that will keep you comfortable longer than a Neil Diamond set list. Say, Cracklin' Rosie, can you hand me that filter wrench?
